

If 9/11 losses were covered by TRIA: Amount payable by segment

These charts show how 9/11 losses would have been covered under TRIA had the event occurred in each of the years shown below (assuming the program were renewed for 10 years beyond its current 2020 expiration date). The federal government's payment falls to zero by 2030, while the amount borne by insurers and policyholders grows.

Source: Reinsurance Association of America

*Mandatory surcharge on all policies covered under TRIA