Section 2. Interaction with Other Law

Nothing in this act limits the scope of federal or state law regarding delivery or transport of goods. Deliveries made under this act that are subject to such other law must also comply with the requirements of that law. In the event of a conflict between this act and another law dealing with the delivery or transport of goods, the other law prevails.

Section 3. Insurance Requirements

- (a) A Delivery Network Company shall ensure that, during the Delivery Available Period, if it applies, and during the Delivery Service Period, primary automobile liability insurance is in place that recognizes that the driver is a Delivery Network Driver or that does not exclude coverage for use of a personal vehicle to provide deliveries.
- (b) During the Delivery Service Period and Delivery Available Period, the Delivery Network Driver, Delivery Network Company, or any combination of the two shall maintain insurance for liability to third parties of not less than $50,000 for damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one person in an accident, of not less than $100,000 for damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by all persons injured in an accident, and of not less than $25,000 for all damages arising out of damage to or destruction of property in an accident. ~~insurance coverage that at least meets the higher of either the minimum primary automobile insurance amounts required by (reference to state personal financial responsibility law), or liability coverage of not less than twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one (1) person, and not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by all persons injured as a result of any one (1) accident, plus liability coverage of not less than twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000) for all damage arising out of damage to or destruction of property. Additionally, uninsured/underinsured motorist coverage in the amount of twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by any one (1) person, and not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for all damages arising out of bodily injury sustained by all persons injured as a result of any one (1) accident shall also be maintained.~~

(hi) In a claims coverage investigation, a Delivery Network Company or its insurer shall cooperate with all insurers that are involved in the claims coverage investigation to facilitate the exchange of information and shall immediately provide upon request by directly involved parties or any insurer the precise times that a Delivery Network Driver began and ended the Delivery Available Period and/or the Delivery Services Period on the Delivery Network Company's Digital Network in the twelve-hour period immediately preceding the accident and in the twelve-hour period immediately following the accident. ~~A Delivery Network Company shall also provide information regarding the precise times when a Delivery Network Driver was acting within the Delivery Available Period and/or the Delivery Service Period.~~ Insurers potentially providing the coverage required in Section 3 shall disclose upon request by any other such insurer involved in the particular claim, the applicable coverages, exclusions, and limits provided under any automobile insurance maintained in order to satisfy the requirements of Section 3.
