Amendments to be discussed and potentially considered during the meeting of the Financial Services & Multi-Lines Issues Committee on November 14, 2025.*

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF _____

The legislature finds that insurance fraud is pervasive and expensive, costing consumers and the business community of this state millions of dollars each year. Each family incurs in excess of several hundreds of dollars annually in direct and indirect costs attributable to insurance fraud. Insurance fraud takes innocent lives through stated accidents, arsons and unnecessary medical procedures. Insurance fraud increases premiums, leaves consumers with fewer insurance options, and places businesses at risk. Some forms of insurance fraud can also lead to the financial collapse of smaller insurance companies, and negatively impacts all insurers regardless of size. Insurance fraud reduces consumers' ability to raise their standard of living and decreases the economic vitality of our state.

Therefore, the legislature believes that the state of _____ must aggressively confront the problem of insurance fraud by facilitating the detection, reducing the occurrence through stricter enforcement and deterrence, requiring restitution and increasing the partnership among consumers, the insurance industry and the state in coordinating efforts to combat insurance fraud by enacting the following Act.

Section 1. Definitions

As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise, the following terms have the meaning ascribed to them in this section.

Actual Malice. “Actual Malice” means knowledge that information is false, or “reckless” disregard of whether it is false.

Conceal. “Conceal” or “Concealment” means to take affirmative action to prevent others from discovering information. Mere inadvertent or unintentional failure to disclose information, by itself, does not constitute concealment. Action by the holder of a legal privilege, or one who has a reasonable belief such a privilege exists, to prevent discovery of privileged information does not constitute concealment.

Insurance Policy. “Insurance Policy” means the written instrument in which are set forth the terms of any certificate of insurance, binder of coverage or contract of insurance (including a certificate, binder or contract issued by a state-assigned risk plan); benefit plan; nonprofit hospital service plan; motor club service plan; or surety bond, cash bond or any other alternative to insurance authorized by this state’s financial responsibility act. Insurance Policy also is any other instruments authorized or regulated by the department of insurance.

Insurance Professional. “Insurance Professional” means sales agents, managing general agents, brokers, producers, adjusters, investigators, examiners, consultants, and thirdparty administrators. An “Insurance Professional” may be a direct employee, independent contractor or in any other similar status of providing service to the insurance company.

Insurance Transaction. “Insurance Transaction” means a transaction by, between or among: (1) an Insurer or a Person who acts on behalf of an Insurer; and (2) an insured, claimant, applicant for insurance, public adjuster, Insurance Professional, Practitioner, or any Person who acts on behalf of any of the foregoing, for the purpose of obtaining insurance or reinsurance, calculating insurance Premiums, submitting a claim, negotiating or adjusting a claim, or otherwise obtaining insurance, self-insurance, or reinsurance or obtaining the benefits thereof or therefrom.

Insurer. “Insurer” means any Person purporting to engage in the business of insurance or authorized to do business in the state or subject to regulation by the state, who undertakes to indemnify another against loss, damage or liability arising from a contingent or unknown event. “Insurer” includes, but is not limited to, an insurance company; self-insurer; reinsurer; reciprocal exchange; interinsurer; risk retention group; Lloyd’s insurer; fraternal benefit society; surety; medical service, dental, optometric or any other similar health service plan; and any other legal entity engaged or purportedly engaged in the business of insurance, including any Person or entity which falls within the definition of “Insurer” found within the _____ Insurance Code § _____.

Pattern or practice. “Pattern or practice” means repeated, routine or generalized in nature, and not merely isolated or sporadic. Evidence of pattern or practice may include acts in this state or any other jurisdiction.

Person. “Person” means a natural person, company, corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, professional corporation, agency of government or any other entity.

Practitioner. “Practitioner” means a licensee of this state authorized to practice medicine, osteopathy, surgery, psychology, chiropractic, pharmacology, or other healing or treatment professions or arts as may be authorized or licensed by this state or the licensed practitioner of any non-medical treatment rendered in accordance with any other recognized method of healing; any other licensee of the state or Person required to be licensed in the state whose services are compensated either in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by insurance proceeds, including but not limited to automotive repair shops, building contractors and insurance adjusters, or a licensee similarly licensed in other states or nations.

Premium. “Premium” means consideration paid or payable for coverage, or benefits, under an Insurance Policy. “Premium” includes any payments, whether due within the Insurance Policy term or otherwise, and deductible payments whether advanced by the Insurer or Insurance Professional and subject to reimbursement by the insured or otherwise, any self-insured retention or payments, whether advanced by the Insurer or Insurance Professional and subject to reimbursement by the insured or otherwise, and any collateral or security to be provided to collateralize obligations to pay any of the above.

Premium Finance Company. “Premium Finance Company” means a Person engaged or purporting to engage in the business of advancing money, directly or indirectly, to an Insurer or producer at the request of an insured pursuant to the terms of a premium finance agreement, including but not limited to loan contracts, notes, agreements or obligations, wherein the insured has assigned the unearned Premiums, accrued dividends, or loss payments as security for such advancement in payment of Premiums on Insurance Policies only, and does not include the financing of insurance Premiums purchased in connection with the financing of goods and services.

Premium Finance Transaction. “Premium Finance Transaction” means a transaction by, between or among an insured, a producer or other party claiming to act on behalf of an insured and/or a third-party Premium Finance Company, for the purposes of purportedly or actually advancing money directly or indirectly to an Insurer or producer at the request of an insured pursuant to the terms of a premium finance agreement, wherein the insured has assigned the unearned Premiums, accrued dividends or loan payments as security for such advancement in payment of Premiums on Insurance Policies only, and does not include the financing of insurance Premiums purchased in connection with the financing of goods and services.

Reckless. “Reckless” means without reasonable belief of the truth, or, for the purposes of Section 3(c), with a high degree of awareness of probable insolvency.

Withhold. “Withhold” means to fail to disclose facts or information which any law, or regulation, (other than this act) requires to be disclosed. Mere failure to disclose information does not constitute “withholding” if the one failing to disclose reasonably believes that there is no duty to disclose.

Further, in any civil action pleading both exemplary damages and the treble damages available in Section 7(c), plaintiff shall elect one or the other remedy, but not both, at the conclusion of the evidentiary phase of the trial.

However, nothing in this Act shall limit or abrogate any right of action which may exist in the absence of this Act, but no action based on such a right shall rely on this Act to establish a standard of conduct or for any other purpose.

shall prepare, implement, maintain and submit to the department of insurance an insurance anti-fraud plan.

Each Insurer's anti-fraud plan shall outline specific procedures, appropriate to the type of insurance the Insurer writes in this state, to:

- (1) prevent, detect and investigate all forms of insurance fraud for which the carrier is authorized to issue policies or bonds, including fraud involving the Insurer's employees or agents; fraud resulting from misrepresentations in the application, renewal or rating of insurance policies; claims fraud; and security of the Insurer's data processing systems.

The Commissioner may require reasonable modification of the Insurer's anti-fraud plan, or may require other reasonable remedial action if the review or examination reveals substantial non-compliance with the terms of the Insurer's own anti-fraud plan. The Commissioner may require each Insurer to file a summary of the Insurer's anti-fraud activities and results. The anti-fraud plans and the summary of the Insurer's anti-fraud activities and results are not public records and are exempt from any privacy or public records act, and shall be proprietary and not subject to public examination, and shall not be discoverable or admissible in any civil action, whether arising under this Act or any other proceeding involving civil litigation.

This section confers no private rights of action.
